“ My Father was a great man. Not in fame or fortune, but in kindness, gentleness, and always unconditional love towards everyone. I will miss him greatly, but I know that he is smiling once again, with a clear mind...no more foggy thoughts Pop!

“ Ron was the wisest man i have ever met. He was my mentor my friend my brother in Christ. He is the reason that I bacame a pasttor. He would light up a romm just by entering. He has left a hole in my heart that can never be filled and should not be filled. He will always be a part of me. I am sure that he and the Lord are having many philisofical discussions on just about everything. He loved to read and learn new things. You will be missed Mon Ami

“ Ron's life has blessed me more than most people realize. You see, my daughter married his and Ida's grandson. Because of that, I've had the privilege of getting to know his family. Carol is a gem who shines with the light of Christ. I couldn't have chosen a finer man (Carol's son, Daniel) to marry my daughter. They too love God and live a life that reflects God's character. They are raising their children to follow Christ. Four generations! What a beautiful legacy, Ron! A legacy like that is something that physical death cannot take away. Even though our family is saddened by his loss, we sorrow not as those who have no hope. Because of him, many generations will one day meet him at Home.

“ I cherish Ron and Ida's testimonies and stories of God's faithfulness while I lived in Las Vegas. Ron's smile and encouragement always inspired my walk with the Lord. My love and prayers go out to Ida and the rest of the family.
Much love to you all,
