Alice is survived by her three children; David (Sally) Cook of Lansing, MI, William (Cathie) Cook of Agoura, CA, and Carol (Doug) Enck of Dalton, GA., and her life partner and dedicated mate for the last 17 years, Henry Weidner of Lansing, MI. Words cannot describe the positive impact Alice had on everyone that came to know her. She was full of energy, loved to laugh, saw the positive in every situation and care deeply for her family and friends. Alice lived in Ann Arbor, MI for over 45 years and retired from U of M after 25 years of service as a secretary. She was an avid U of M fan until they played MSU, when she became a dedicated MSU fan out of loyalty to her family, most of whom attended MSU. Alice resided at Independence Village the last few years where she received outstanding service from the staff. The Cook family cannot thank them enough for their exceptional care and concern for Alice and their amazing dedication. We also would like to express sincere gratitude to Hospice Advantage for their personal care, dedication and sincere compassion. We were blessed to have all of these individuals become part of our lives.
