“ Amber was my sweet, precious baby girl I loved dearly, and I used to make her pancakes all the time when I lived in grand ledge. When Amber was 17, she and a friend flew down to visit me in Florida where I had moved to several years before. We went to everything park there is down here and they took the girls to Daytona Beach one day at their request and we all had a great time visiting. There are no words for my sorrow, but I'm sure they do not compare to the loss and sorrow that my best friend Carol feels. Carol knew I would not take this news very well so she did not tell me Amber died until today well, I asked about her. Her mama Carol will always be the best friend I ever had and I wish I had one more chance to see her and Amber here in Florida together. Love, Hugs and blessings from Vero Beach to Carol, Michael, and John
