“ “Aunt Ann” was such a dear, lifelong friend of my mother-in-law Bev Bolton. They were in constant communication by writing letters and phone calls. I hope they are back together and “catching up” after being apart these last few years. I know Ann as a sweet and happy soul, who will be greatly missed by friends and family, I’m sure. Big hugs to the Clark family as you go on without her. —Lisa Bolton

For the past 20 years since Janice passed Aunt Ann has been a mom to the Kirinovic family. She treated us all like her own. Aunt Ann and Uncle Lyle attended many events from graduations, football games, lacrosse games, weddings and numerous family events with smiles, hugs, and tears! I am going to miss the visits and love she poured out to us all. Sincerely, Marge Kirinovic
