“ There was never a dull moment when you were around Brent. He always had a story to share or a very wise philosophy Statement he would make.

My fondest memory with Brent is him breaking out the harmonica with some Bob Seger or some blues, he was great at lyrics or improvising his own crazy lyrics.

Brent was always so strong, he would never admit of ever being in pain of any kind.

No words can describe how sorry I am for the family and friends loss. Brent was most certainly loved by many friends and family. Wishing peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts.

Now he's pain free up in the heavens with his Grandpa Frank, his dad LaVern and many loved ones that have past, playing cards and playing his harmonica.

My thoughts, prayers are with you all. God bless. Amen
