“ Dear Melva, Lynda and family “Carl was certainly an important person in my life. I remember him sitting in his chair by the fireplace at the Fairlawn Court house, driving the boat so we could water ski on Platt Lake and Loon Lake and talking about his time in the service. A big part of my childhood memories are the times I visited the family during Christmas break and the families getting together on New Year’s eve and during the summer at our cottage and then later the cottage on Platt Lake. He will be missed by many people, especially Melva, with whom he shared a true love story. My thoughts and love go out to you. Love, Beth
