“ My deepest sympathies go out to all of Clay's family and friends. Clay always had a smile on his face and I remember, way back in school, when things weren't going my way, Clay always did his best to turn things around. I know he will be missed by all who knew him.##imported-begin##Matthew Gormely##imported-end##

“ Please accept our heart-felt sympathies to your family in this time of great loss. We last saw Clay at Alex's wedding in Arizona. It was nice to see Clay and 'all the boys' together and enjoying life. He is remembered by us as a fine, strong young man with a charming smile. We hope your fondest memories sustain you in the months and years ahead.##imported-begin##Barbara Roberts & Joe Lubaway##imported-end##

“ Clay was a great guy - warm, kind and funny, who will be missed by all of us who had the pleasure of his friendship. I fondly remember a lot of great touch-football games in his yard in East Lansing, and a particularly spectacular catch he made on one of our childhood baseball games. I can see it right now in my head. I never thought much about Clay's medical issues. He was such a positive guy, who seemed always more concerned with all the good things in life than the health challenges he faced. My condolences to Pat and his family.##imported-begin##Brian Robbins##imported-end##
