

Colleen Theresa-Mary Horan

December 25, 1961 - July 18, 2025

Colleen Theresa-Mary Horan, a cherished sister, aunt, and friend, passed away peacefully on July 18, 2025, in East Lansing, Michigan. She was born on December 25, 1961, in Detroit, Michigan to the late Thomas R. Horan and Patricia Ann (Murphy) Horan, and lived a life filled with love and creativity.

Colleen was a proud graduate of Grand Ledge High School and devoted 25 years of her life to her role as a mail room clerk at Auto-Owners Insurance. Her dedication and work ethic left a lasting impact on her colleagues and the many lives she touched throughout her career.

Colleen was known for her warm heart, nurturing spirit, and great sense of humor. Colleen found joy in the simple pleasures of life and comforted by her deep faith in God. She was an animal lover at heart, with a special affection for panda bears, dogs, and rabbits. Her creativity shone through in her passion for arts and crafts, providing her with a beautiful outlet for self-expression. Colleen enjoyed playing bingo, often seen with a gleaming smile as she engaged with friends and family.

As a wonderful baker, Colleen was famous for her delicious cookies and desserts, filling the homes of her loved ones with warmth and sweetness. Her family and friends will forever cherish the joyful moments spent around the table, sharing laughter and her delectable treats.

Colleen is survived by her beloved brother, Daniel Horan, her adoring nieces and nephews, Anna Barrett, Halle and Jack Horan who brought immeasurable joy to her life. She was preceded in death by her younger brother, Terrance Francis Horan.

Colleen's gentle spirit will live on in the hearts of those who knew her, a shining example of love and kindness. She will be deeply missed, but her legacy of compassion and joy will never fade.

Memorial contributions in Colleen's name may be given to the Lupus Foundation of America, 2121 K Street, Suite 200, Washington, DC 20037 (<https://www.lupus.org/?form=FUNRTGVASPJ>).
