“ It is with great sadness that we mark the death of Dave. Please accept our condolences. He offered many hard earned and learned lessons to his sons which will serve them well but he offered so much more. It was the ethics he held high and his mores that he most wanted his boys to embrace. He tried to instill a values system that would insure a good life for them today and beyond.

I'm sorry we cannot be with you for the services but we are with you in spirit and will forever treasure the summer of '10 when, even for a short while, we were family.

“ I'll never forget the way you laughed after you told a joke. Or the way you wore your PJ bottoms just a little too high and did something provocative when you had them situated. Still find it hard to believe you're "gone". I love you, Dad. You will be missed by many!!

“ His laugh was infectious, sometimes he would laugh so hard, his face would turn red, even his ears. He also loved to tease me and his sister.

I am his Mom, and I will miss him every day, loved him so much.

“ My favorite memories are whenever you and your boys came to New Jersey you played pranks on me.....like put our trampoline and grill from the back yard in the front yard...you had to lift it all over locked gates....when we woke up in the morning people thought we were having a yard sale....the door handles and garage door full of vaseline.....and i really loved the 1000 s of forks with vaseline pushed into the lawn that i had to pull out....but your the only person who could get away with it. Im happy we got to come see you in october but not happy that you can never prank us again.
XOXOX I love you.....Laura (Fox Spina)
