

Deborah Ann Marsh

February 24, 1954 - September 22, 2019

Deborah Ann Marsh, a lifelong resident of Grand Ledge, Michigan passed away surrounded by her family on Sunday, September 22, 2019, after a 15-month battle with metastatic breast cancer. She wanted everyone to know that “cancer sucks.”

Debbie was born February 24, 1954, in Lansing, Michigan to Kenneth and Elaine (Hoppes) Dorin. Debbie met Tim Marsh in high school, and they were married on August 17, 1973. Debbie loved children. Between her own three children and their friends, as well as those that joined the family during her twelve years of operating a daycare, the home was always filled with kids. She was known for her chocolate chip cookies and usually had them in the cookie jar or on a plate for school parties. After the kids were in school, Debbie worked as a teacher’s aid at Holbrook Elementary School in Grand Ledge for 20 years. During her time at Holbrook, she made many lifelong friends.

In her years since retirement, Debbie was a granny nanny for her grandchildren, played golf, and spent time in her flower gardens. She enjoyed the family’s annual trips to Northern Michigan and always made sure to plan family birthday parties. Debbie and Tim have also enjoyed several vacations with family and friends.

Debbie is survived by her husband of 46 years, Tim, and their three children Todd (Erin), Andy (Mandy), and Amy (Tony) Heriford. She was a proud grandmother to Madelyn, Brendan, Caelan, Jameson, Lilly, Noah, Laura, Eli, and Isaac. She is also survived by her mother, sisters, Nita (Greg) Gilbert, Laurie (Duane) Haring, Lisa Lundquist, and many special nieces, nephews, aunts, and uncles. She was preceded in death by her father, Kenneth Dorin. Debbie was surrounded by friends, many of who supported her with visits, meals, cards, and words of encouragement during the last year.

A Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, September 26, 2019 at 11:00AM at St. Michael Catholic Church in Grand Ledge by Father James Eisele. Memorial visitation will be Wednesday from 2-4PM and from 6-8PM at Holihan-Atkin-Barclay Funeral Home in Grand Ledge and Thursday at the church from 10-11AM. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to Grand Ledge Blessings in a Backpack, PO Box 162, Grand Ledge, MI 48837 (<https://blessingsinabackpackgl.org/how-to-donate/>) or Sparrow Foundation, Hospice House of Mid-Michigan Mid-Michigan, 1215 E. Michigan Avenue, Lansing, Michigan 48912 (<https://www.sparrowfoundation.org/donate>). The family also invites friends and family to join them in Debbie's love for kids by bringing a childrens book to the funeral or visitation. The books will be donated throughout the Grand Ledge Community.

“ In the 25 years my family lived in Grand Ledge, Debbie was one of the kindest souls I knew. Our daughters were in the same grade and played sports together for a brief time, but I didn't know the depth of her kindness until the girls were in middle school. Just before school began in their 9th grade year, our house was hit by lightning in a summer storm and much of the house was ruined in the fire. I was a single mom and barely knew Debbie then, but she checked in on me, sent a generous gift card and offered to help with any school or clothing supplies my kids needed. Her genuine caring touched me deeply, and I always felt a strong beam of gratitude and special connection to Debbie and her family thereafter. She lived as a beacon of love for her family, shining her light in healing rings around her. Tim, Amy and all your family, our hearts and prayers are with you. With love, Deanna and Bill Richeson

“ My sincere and heartfelt condolences go out to your family during this horribly difficult time. I have worked with Todd for many years, and saw, through him, the love and commitment you had for your family, Deb. You raised your children to work diligently on their goals, treat others with kindness and respect, and have deep empathy and genuine gratitude for others. May you soar with the angels and golf with the saints!

“ I remember sitting with Debbie at Amy's last track meet. She looked at me and said, "This is it. It's the last race". I said, yes it is, but there is so much more ahead!! And there was!! 9 beautiful Grandchildren! She loved her family, and gave them her 100%!!. I greatly miss running into her at Hobby Lobby, Kohl's and Logjam. Like I told you at Christmas Eve Childrens Mass 2018,....Debbie you are beautiful!! She cried and said, no I'm not. I said, pish posh, your beauty is YOU!! You are gone way too soon! CANCER SUCKS!! Rest in Peace. You are a Guardian Angel!! 😍💕💚💕💙😭

“ *Tim and family,
Fr. Bob shared the sad news about Debbie. Certainly, she was the love of your life. Looking back, all the way from High School, you two were "THE PAIR."
So sorry for the loss, your sadness and the pain that will be part of the healing.
May you gain peace through our Faith and comfort from loved ones in the days to come.*

*Prayers for all
