“ When we were all younger kids my sisters and I would go to Uncle Bob and Aunt Jeans house for a sleepover party and make homemade pizza and texas sheet cake. That was really fun time to spend with the cousins. it seemed like each Thanksgvile we would go the Grandpa and Grandma's house for dinner then play football in the front yard. Sure had fun times. “ Debra, you were my loving little cousin, whom showed me that life holds many turns and how to always hold your head high through it all!! You greeted us all with your beautiful smile and a quiet hello! I am now and always have been proud to call you my cousin! Until we meet again Debbie Rest In Peace. The life lessons you taught me will be in my heart forever!
