

Diana Oglesby

February 16, 1949 - June 6, 2024

Diana Sue Oglesby was born February 16, 1949 in Lansing, MI raised in Charlotte and departed this life on June 6, 2024 as a resident of Wacousta, MI. She was preceded in death by her parents, Vern and Betty Gilding, and her husband, Curt Oglesby. Survivors include her sons, Michael (Angela) Oglesby and Jeff Oglesby, her grandson, Andrew Oglesby, and siblings David (Sandy) Gilding, Rod (Gloria) Gilding, and Renee (Jim) Dorah.

Diana spent her working years helping others turn their houses into homes while employed at Sears and Value City Furniture. She spent the majority of her life as a homemaker and loved cooking for her boys. Diana was known as a great cook. Her sons and grandson will miss her sweet rolls, her macaroni and tomatoes, and her salmon, corn, and mashed potatoes meal.

Diana thoroughly enjoyed gardening. Over the years, she grew a variety of vegetables. Later in life, she liked to spend time outside in her flower garden. Her favorite flowers were orchids.

As an avid painter, Diana painted beautiful landscapes. Although painting was just a hobby, her work was displayed in 2019 at The Mica Gallery Show in Old Towne Lansing, MI. These beautiful works of art are now treasured pieces to her boys.

Diana most enjoyed spending time with her family and will be truly missed by her family and friends. A memorial will take place at The Windsor House located at 139 N. Bridge St. in Dimondale on July 20th from noon to 2 pm accompanied by a luncheon.
