“ I first met Doris in 1975 when we became "across the street" neighbors. She was very friendly and interested in our young family, and her daughter Jeanette and my son Doug became really good friends. Doris cared about my spiritual life and guided me to a good bible preaching church, for which I am eternally grateful. Our families stayed in contact over the years, and some years ago Doris and Roland took me to attend an event at Youth Haven ranch. I was very impressed with that ministry. My condolences to all of Doris's family, but you have the assurance of seeing her again. Jenni (Ruble) Fernand
