

L. Doris (Cline) McFann

November 5, 1920 - June 30, 2013

L. Doris (Cline) McFann at 92, on June 30, 2013, Doris peacefully joined her Savior after a final battle with cancer. Born Lillian Doris Cline, November 5, 1920 in LaGrange, Georgia to Dewey and Lillian (Hendon) Cline. At age 2 moved to Durham, North Carolina. After high school, took the North Carolina state merit exams placing 83rd in the state. She worked as a state employee, becoming part of the Federal Civil Service during WWII and transferred to the army hospital at Camp Butner as a medical stenographer and librarian. After the war, she met Eugene “Mac” McFann, who was being discharged through Butner after serving four years in the Army in the U.S. and Europe. They were married in January 1946 and returned to his home in Ohio; later moved to Michigan, where they raised three children Deborah, Michael, and Candace. Returned to NC for retirement, settling in the Chatham County countryside; enjoying warm weather (she never liked Michigan winters), family, friends and her two dogs. Her Brown’s Chapel Church “family” helped her through good and hard times, including the death of her husband. Doris was a survivor experiencing many miracles in her lifetime. Born premature, not expected to live; survived breast cancer at 67; pancreatic cancer at 71; another form of breast cancer at 87, which returned at 92. She spent her final three years in Michigan with family.

She enjoyed adventure-including flying lessons early in life; traveling, she was able to see much of the US, including Alaska; reading, knitting, watercolor, crafts, solving puzzles and working/playing with the computer (purchased at age 71).

She was preceded in death by her loving husband of 45 years Eugene "Mac" McFann, parents Dewey and Lillian (Hendon) Cline; sister, Eloise (Cline) Ross and brother-in-law Wayne Ross; brother Douglas Cline and sister-in-law Joanne (Graham) Cline, brother John Cline. Surviving are her three children: Deborah (Pat) McCaffrey; Michael McFann/Anne; Candace (Marty) Raymond; eight grandchildren, three great grandchildren, her sister-in-law, Mary (Nichols) Cline, beloved nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, October 19, 2013, 11:00 a.m. at the Brown's Chapel Church, Pittsboro, NC. For those desiring, contributions may be made to the church, P.O. Box 785, Piitsboro, NC 27312.
