July 1, 1925 - January 20, 2014

Dorothey Howe passed away January 20, 2014. Born July 1, 1925, daughter of Anna and Lee Howe, Dorothey lived in Grand ledge most of her life. She graduated from Grand Ledge High School in 1943 and worked for the State of Michigan until she retired. She was an independent, artistic and adventurous soul who taught her many nieces and nephews to seek out their own fun and adventure. Pleasant with her niece Bobby Jo were among her most favorite memories. She loved wildlife, cats, dogs and gardening and took in many stray animals over her lifetime. She was quirky-she was smart- she was fun-she was outspoken- she was loved. She is happy with the angels!! We will miss you Dort!! “ Dear Murphy clan, I am so sad not to attend the memorial for Aunt Dort !
So many memories, but my treasured one is the family vacation with all of you. I continue to tell of the enjoyable days and nights with the many talented group. Polly and her beautiful dancing. The guitars, the great cooks. Of course I was with aunt Dort ,playing non-stop cards.. She never was too concerned about others opinions of what she decided to do,drive the kids around in her big car that did not have insurance. Loved her greeting cards. She will be missed.blessings to all of you. I wish I was there to hear your stories. Love janey lee Irish
