“ Eileen Beardslee was a special Aunt-In-Law to me. She was, I believe, the youngest of the Schultz siblings and survived the longest. I always enjoyed a little time with her at the Schultz family reunions. She was loving, caring, and she loved to laugh. A hard-working special lady and she will be missed greatly. R.I.P. Eileen Beardslee. Much Love and Sympathy to All the Family.

“ Aunt Eileen, which i called her when i was young. She was so sweet. wish I knew more about her life. She was my Grandma Fern Schultz Vining s younger sister. I believe my Grandma was the oldest she was born in 1905 I sure would like to know when Aunt Eileen was born and died. Hope the family, when they read this will send me a quick email cathiedewitt@yahoo.com and fill me in. She was always so nice to me.
