“ I am deeply saddened by the news of Aunt Eleanor's death. She was very special to me. I will miss her yearly Christmas cards. I remember her fondly growing up on my summer vacations in Michigan and seeing her smiling face. I remember her and Aunt Velma puppies from my dog, Mitzi, and treating them like Queens :) I have 3 children, ages 13, 10, and 9, and with each birth, Aunt Eleanor sent (to Mississippi) a monogrammed blanket for them. I wish they could have known her more. She will forever be in my heart.
