“ I am sorry for your loss of a mother and grandmother. She was a friend from our days at St. Lawrence Hospital, and particularly of the Hospital staffs golf league. We enjoyed each others company during many a lunch and rounds of golf. I shall remember her laugh, sarcasm, and insights into all things related to the Hospital and its staff.I trust that your memories will sustain you all in the future. We are all better people for having known Liz.John Lower##imported-begin##John Lower##imported-end##
