“ Gerold was a very special friend. we spent many hours playing checkers Gerold took me to lunch one day and we saw a checker game just calling our name. We sat down by the open fire place and played checkers After that we bought a checker game from Cracker Barrel. we found a nice card table at a thrift shop and played checkers every time I went to visit him I will never forget playing checkers with him. He was such a kind man. I miss him so much but one day we well play checkers in Heaven because he was saved and so am I.
