“ You took a piece of me with you Pops...my Dad, Father, my hero. I'm so thankful I was able to tell you what a wonderful wonderful dad you were...everything a little girl to a middle aged daughter could ever want. You were always so selfless when it came to Mom and us kids. You made sure our family had everything we needed right up until your last breath. I'm thankful you aren't in anymore pain and that you are with the ones you've lost over the years. I am telling God everyday that he truly received one of his best angels. I love you Pops and I miss you horribly. I am certainly looking forward to the day I get to see and hug you again. Be at peace and know that we are fine and will take great care of Mom and Chloe. 🙏❤️🙏🥹🙏❤️🙏

A beautiful tribute Kathy. You know, it brings to mind what I wrote about my husband. "The true worth of a man is not measured in the tears you shed for him but in the Love and Laughter you shared with him." Love you my Cuz
