“ Having tried 3 times to post my memories of Louise, and losing the posts before I could post, I will say I have warm memories and admiration for her. She was gentle, soft spoken with a quick wit and laugh. She was faithful to God and a loving and proud mother. I celebrated her faithful life to God, her family and her friends. Knowing the loss of having the physical loved one to be present in your life is painful, I am keeping her family in prayer for peace and comfort, even as I rejoice that Louise has finished her race in her life as a child of God, and ran her race well. Sandy and Bud Evert, may your memories be a priceless gift.
