

J. Paul Stettler

November 3, 1958 - September 27, 2022

James "Paul" Stettler

Lansing, Michigan

Born November 3, 1958, passed away peacefully September 27, 2022.

Paul journeyed through life doing his best to impose on no one. He was kindhearted and friendly. He enjoyed music, photography, astronomy, coin collecting and motorcycles. He was a loner who mostly enjoyed the company of numerous cats over the years with a few select "human" friends as well. Paul attended Waverly Public Schools in Lansing. He earned a High School degree and went on to study at Lansing Community College. Paul had an interest in legal matters and studied law briefly. He worked hard at a variety of jobs. Among them, he was a grounds keeper, automotive body repairman, secondhand store clerk (Dicker and Deal) and professional photographer. He had a wonderfully dry sense of humor. He also dabbled briefly in local theater productions, acting on stage several times. He was preceded in death by his parents Robert and Jean Stettler, and older brother Eric Stettler. The world was a better place with Paul in it. We are lesser for losing him.

Mass will be offered for the repose of the soul of Paul at Saint Mary's Cathedral on November 12th at 8 AM.

Memorial Contributions may be given in his name to New Hope Pet Rescue, 815 N. Sheldon Street, Charlotte, Michigan 48813 (www.newhopepetrescue.com). Arrangements by the Holihan-Atkin-Barclay Funeral Home, Grand Ledge.

“ So sorry to hear of Paul's passing he was a great next door neighbor and we loved talking to him when he would be on his porch and the fresh tomatoes he would bring us from his garden he will be missed

“ My memories of Paul were from local theatre. I acted with Paul and the great local actor Richard Bennett, in the production of My Three Angels at Riverwalk Theatre. It was the second production in Riverwalk's new home in October 1989. Paul, Richard, and I played the angels, actually, convicts. It was a fun production and experience, directed by Bob Robinson of Spotlight Theatre.

Very sorry to hear of Paul's passing. He was an interesting character. My condolences to his family. RIP Justin Banks, Lansing, MI
