

James Bruce Irish

July 9, 1938 - November 25, 2017

James Bruce Irish of Grand Ledge passed away November 25, 2017 after a courageous 2 year battle with cancer. He was born in Lansing, Michigan, at his Grandma Finnis' house on Center Street on July 9, 1938. He was preceded in death by his parents Ward H. and Adeline Irish, Brother Stephen; Stephen's wife Susan and special nephew, Jim Vermeersch. He graduated from Grand Ledge High School in 1956. He was hired into the apprenticeship program with McConnel's Sheet Metal, got laid off and then in January 1957, he joined the Marine Corp with his friend, Dan Hankins. He fulfilled his obligation and was discharged February 1959. He hired into Fisher Body and later transferred to Oldsmobile where he retired in 1992 after 33 years of service. He met his wife to be, Carol Uschuk, the summer of 1959 and they were married May 15, 1961.

Right up to the end he loved high school sports and MSU basketball and football. He was also active in the Grand Ledge Bullpen Club and Old Newsboys for 30 years, plus Jim and Carol delivered Meals on Wheels for 20 years. He was honored to be inducted into the GL Bullpen Hall of fame along with pillar of the community, Mr. Ron Richmond in 2015.

He enjoyed yard work, his garden, fishing trips to Canada, their family cottage on Horsehead Lake, New Years Eve at Maguire's cabin, playing no limit poker, and fast-pitch softball. Carol and Jim also enjoyed 25 winters on the Gulf in Alabama. His biggest satisfaction, even before he retired, was visiting men and women whom he felt had an impact on his life growing up and taking them to lunch or on road trips and to GL Baseball and football games when possible. This included an occasional trip to Preston's for an adult beverage with a special friend, Stub. He also enjoyed taking Mr. Carl Wagner to St. Gerard mass on Saturday and out to dinner until Carl was placed in a retirement home.

Jim truly enjoyed his family life. He is survived by his wife Carol; 3 children: Karen (Scott) Warriner, Mike, Keri (Lee) Chevalier; 6 grandchildren: Bryanna (Jake) Manning, Kristen (Austin) Goble, Jake Warriner, James Michael Irish, Sophie and Ava Chevalier and 2 great grandchildren, Louise and Theodore Manning. He always attended all the grandkid's events including choir concerts, plays and sports. He is also survived by his remaining brothers and sisters; Jan Vermeersch, Kay (Erv) Star, Ward F. Irish, Michael (Pam) Irish, Fr. Robert Irish and Mary Jo (John) Thayer, along with numerous nieces and nephews. Jim always felt his 70 years living in Grand Ledge was the best thing he ever did because he could never find another town with so many special people.

“ We were sadden to hear Jim had passed away. Jim was one of the founding members of the Gulf Shores Men's Snowbird Coffee Club, now in it's 41st year. I had the pleasure of meeting Jim there and every time I ran into Jim he put a smile on my face. He will be deeply missed by his many friends he made at the Coffee Club. We pray the family can find peace and comfort in remembering the good times shared. Our heartfelt condolences go out to the entire Irish family.

“ Deepest Condolences to Carol and all of the Irish Family ... Jim was, by far, the best Supervisor I ever worked for at General Motors ...He was so hilarious when he was playing Poker He'd talk to the other players and literally get in their heads at the table ... He had a great grasp on sarcasm and was the king of one liners Loved running into him at Grand Ledge Football/Baseball games and his granddaughters Softball games ... Grand Ledge High School Sports will miss him as will everyone who knew Jim ... God Speed Jim “ I've known the Irish family since I was born. His parents were my godparents.

Our families grew up together. Side by side at St Michaels and in Grand Ledge.
Many Easter Sundays year after year celebrated together , parties .
Weddings . Celebrations and funerals...
My entire family shares in your grief.
My kids called Ward "The Big Guy" and I always thought of Jim as "Big Guy Junior". Grand Ledge will miss you Jim.
