“ I am so sorry not to be able to come to Jean's service today. She was one of the sweetest and kindest women I have ever known, and I know how sad she has been since your dad passed away. I can just see the spot she sat in for Sunday service, often with her dear friend Verna Barclay. And she loved coming to the monthly Congregators lunches...that's actually how I got to know her the most. You have given her such loving care in her own own these last years...how fortunate she was for that gift, and and I'm sure she thanked you many times. I know she is with the angels in heaven now, and with your dad.

with love,
Charlene Avery
