“ So sad to hear about Jo. My husband was a German student who boarded with her when he was studying at GMI (now Kettering) and working at Oldsmobile. She taught him how to prepare squash and introduced him to other foods and customs. She was a lovely person, and we so enjoyed spending time with her! Just found out about her death, and I miss her already. Condolences to her family and other friends!

“ Jo was my parents' neighbor and friend of our family for many years. She always had a sparkle in her eye, and I always loved visiting with her when I came to town. She will be missed.
