“ My deepest condolences to LynnMarie, their children & Josh's family at the loss of husband, father, brother, son. Josh and his family lived next to us in Grand Ledge and we got to know Josh as a funny, sensitive, lovely boy that grew to become the devoted family man that married the beautiful girl down the road. My heart was heavy when I learned of his passing, and cherish the memories of him, his siblings, LynnMarie and my daughter Brittany laughing in the backyard on Marsh Drive all those summers ago.

“ Aunt Sherri and family

Although I haven't seen Josh to much as and adult. I have some stories about him and Michael as a Toddlers. I think the one that I have always remembered that makes me laugh because I see it today with other parents.

As parents we always get our children dressed first and tell them to stay right there until we are finished getting ourselves ready. Not those two 🤦🏻😂🤦🏻 they done awesome for the first five minutes. By the time their parents were ready and calling them because they disappeared. The search was on. During this search there was always a trail,,,yes a trail. At the beginning of this trail it was shoes and socks,,,,then clothes and last but not least the diapers. Right out in the back yard there they were in their kiddie pool. As soon a they seen their parents the chase was on 😂🤦🏻😂 Josh always had a soft heart even as a toddler. You will be missed Joshua and forever loved ❤️

“ Josh was the very first person to embrace me with open arms when I came to PNC in 2016. Over the years, it has brought me peace of mind to always have someone to reach out to, no matter what paths in our journey we were on. Josh had the biggest heart, the kindest smile, and was so proud of his family. I am so sorry for your loss, and will be keeping your family in my prayers.

“ So sorry for you loss. Josh was a great man. Had the opportunity to work with him at PNC bank downtown. Josh always went out of his way to make sure his employees were taken care of and having fun. Cared more about others than he did himself. Will be missed!
