“ I was surprised and so sorry to hear of Judy Monroe's passing. I knew her from her visits to us at the Grand Ledge Area District Library in Wacousta. I'm sure I speak for all of us here when I say we will miss her visits to us and send our thoughts and prayers to her family.

“ To Harvey, Ty, Mary and the rest of the Wingert sibs. Your wife, mom and big sister was a kind, loving person who will truly be missed. I have many fond memories of Judy's gentle spirit but know they pale in comparison to the many ways she touched your lives. I pray that when the grieving ends the Lord will fill you with His love, joy and peace. May your treasured moments with her be firmly implanted within your soul.

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Math 11:28

“ I'm so sad to hear about Mrs. Monroe's (as I knew her from home ec class) passing. Later on I had the surprise to find out she would become one of my "regulars" at M100 McDonalds during my time there. I will always have fond memories of the "Coffee crew" (and even remember how many creams they like). Many well wishes to Harvey and his family during this difficult time!

“ For three or four years I spent more time at the Wingert's house than I did my own. I have a brother five years older and a sister eight years older than me, so I had no one to play with at home. But there was always someone to play with at the Wingert's! Being the closest and only neighbors, I could be at their home in about four minutes.

It was at the Wingert's where I saw and learned what the word "family" meant. There was always love and respect in a home that seemed bustling with kids. I loved being there.

Through the years, Becky was Judy's and my Girl Scout leader. I'll never forget the fun we had on the camping trips to "The Timbers" in Traverse City, or my mom and sister, Mary Ann, and I spending every New Years Day at the Wingert's, eating the traditional pork, sauerkraut, and whipped potatoes dinner.

Judy was in my life during those care-free, growing up, life-forming years, and was always a good influence on me. She was the kind of friend every one should be blessed to have.

“ The Podjun family wishes to share our heartfelt sympathy in Judy's passing. Her sudden illness and death leave all of us shocked and deeply saddened. We all grew up together, and now we thankfully have one another to share this life's disappointments and loss. Judy was a kind and loving soul who I'm sure was loved by all you ever knew her. God Bless one and all.
