“ My husband John and I had the pleasure of being Julie’s landlord the past three years. We live in a close knit neighborhood, Julie, AJ and Olivia were a great addition to the neighborhood. We will miss her contagious smile and laughter. God speed Julie, I know you are up in heaven singing with the angels, for their sake I hope you can carry a tune.

“ I had the absolute pleasure of working with Julie for the past 15 years. I will miss her organization, loyalty, conversations, and especially her humor. She can make any of us laugh within a matter of seconds. She was so witty, you never knew what was going to come out of her mouth next!

She was famous for her "sponge cake", where she would bring a cake in, but in reality they would be large sponge's doused in chocolate frosting to look like a regular cake. You needed a chainsaw to cut the things! We would laugh and laugh at people attempting to cut a piece of it.

I also remember a team building exercise we had where we had to play a fun little harmless card game as groups of 5-6 people, but the catch was you couldn't speak or make any sounds at all. After a few minutes the instructor of the class gave us the ok to talk. Before anyone said a word, Julie yelled out "CHEATER" to her group and made the whole room laugh.

She will be missed by so many people. RIP Julie

“ I am going to miss her at the McNeilly reunions, she always had a smile on her face and prank up her sleeve! I bet she is sticking her finger in my dad's curl on the top of his head up in heaven and those two are up to some mischief!! She surely will be missed. Prayers to her family, we love you 💕💕

Renata Copeman - January 04, 2022 at 06:00 PM

Thank you so much Renata. You know that she's having fun with that curl, as we did as youngsters. If it was quiet and peaceful before, I'm sure that's not the case since her arrival and her pranks. Love you! Jill “ Julie and I have been friends since we were eight years old. I just found out this evening about her passing.

We talk about once or twice a year, often near Julie's or my Birthday. Since I am not a social media person, and live far away, I had no idea she was sick... I am stunned and saddened beyond words.

To Julie's daughters, parents, siblings, grandchildren and all those she loved so dearly, may Our Lord comfort your broken hearts.

Julie's Friend, In Christ's Love...

I have many fond memories of Julie at the family reunions. I remember her as a sweet, happy girl that didn't mind a little teasing from her cousin. My heart is full of love and sadness for my loss, and the loss felt by her loved ones.

David Rilett - January 05, 2022 at 05:05 PM

David, I'm sure she was greeted with open arms by the family that has gone before us, Aunt Lilly being one of them. We are at a loss, but know she is in a better place. Love you! Jill
