“ I worked with Larry at the Chrysler facility in Brampton, Ontario for years on many projects. As a young engineer I always liked him. He was tough but always appreciative of the effort you put into projects and diligent in his work.

On to the next adventure dear brother.

“ I was fortunate to know Larry - he was one of the persons in my life who was a great example of a person who lived with perfect love. Perfect love is an acceptance of others that goes beyond simple tolerance, it is an appreciation of the simple things that make this world great, it is the abundant love of his children and grandchildren that could be felt when he's with them in the room, and it is the endearing admiration of his lover, his spouse, his chosen one for life. I will miss seeing Larry at family events; he was not necessarily in the forefront but always supporting from the sidelines. The photo that the family chose is perfect - truly a special moment was captured. Caron St. Germain-Alpers

“ God sends special people into the world that touch each of us. Larry is one of those who shared a love with his wife Joyce, children Jody, Jenee and Larry and all his special grandchildren he spoke off so many times. Both Father Jim and Mark also had a special brother relationship. To each family member I offer my thoughts and prayers and always remember those especial moments with Larry that brought happiness and realize he is now in a special place..Heaven.

Larry was a true friend who was always there to lend an hear, provide comfort and of course to share in a good laugh especially at hunting camp! I could never express in words how grateful I was to have been a friend of Larry.

Let us share the joy each of us shared with Larry during his presence here as we walk through this difficult time but know that God has reached down to bring Larry home away from pain and suffering.

Thank you Larry and I will miss you dearly.

Joyce: From your past - I got to know Larry while you, Lori, and myself, gabbed a bit at Lori's house. It's also when I got to know you. Also, ran into Larry occasionally at Oldsmobile (or whatever it was at the time.) Larry was an all right kind of guy, with good family values. So sorry for you, your children and their families.
