“ We are very saddened to learn of Lavita's passing. We were her neighbors right across the street for over 40 years. My mom, Helen and her were good friends. Lavita, you will be missed. May her soul rest in peace.

“ Dear, dear Laida. I will always remember when my brother John died. We stayed at your home as there were no motels in your town. The evening before the funeral your granddaughters got all the great grandkids together, dressed them in white (as I recall) and they all came in carrying a white rose . . . presented the bouquet to you . . . said goodbye and left. It was the sweetest thing I have yet to see to this day. Your life w/my brother couldn't have been easy for you but you stuck by him and gave him the only real home he ever knew. Rest in peace sweet lady. Helen Crawford

“ I have lived across Clark Street from this "LADY" since April of 1974. She was the sweetest person you could have for a friend and neighbor. I used to mow the lawn lawn and remove snow for her and John and would not let them pay me for the gas or labor. .Lavida knew my mother and my wife from years of bowling together. Some how she learned that I love Lemon Meringue pie so she started making them for me on nearly a monthly basis. She would give me a hug and a kiss every time we would see each other.

I will be greatly missed by anyone she was close to. To her family I am truly Sorry for your loss. Sincerely, Jan H Sabin

“ She had a last name? We all knew her as aunt Laida. Her family was an example of the love, care and respect you give elderly family members, and in so doing have so many happy memories and pictures. I like to think of her “dancing”.
