“ I would like to share that working with Loretta was a complete honor. She has always been a very sweet,funny and kind lady. She could make anyone's day with her smile and sense of humor.which was great !

Loretta will forever be part of my life story because she was the 1st person to tell me that the man I ended up marrying was in love with me. I willnever forget her telling me she knew because she could see it in his eyes when he looked at me.

I had to take her word after all she was smart and had great instinct when it came to love because she got Ron. I always enjoyed seeing them together and hearing the stories about their famiky loife and get together with thier kids etc.. If I'm not mistaken and i could be,but I believe the super bowl was Chili night. Either way I loved the way thier family was/is and I wanted that too.

Loretta, what a charm it was to know you and be a part of your world all those years! R.I.P and God bless you!

Sincerely,Lora Bradley #149 cafeteria manager for Kmart.

“ I was hoping you would do this...I was thinking about memories of Aunt Loretta today. She was ALWAYS willing to do anything for you. She made you feel so loved when you were around her. I absolutely loved her laugh...it makes me laugh just thinking about it! I remember all the fun times staying at her and Uncle Ron's house, the family reunions, and being able to go for a trip to K-Mart (her store) when we visited. The story you girls shared when I was younger about the road trips in the station wagon are forever etched in my mind...God bless you all!
