“ I would like to thank you all for your thoughts, prayers, and stories. I would most like to thank my wife Theada for taking care of dad for the last few years. Theada was dad's closest contact, seeing him at least 4 times a week, while I tried to manage the store without her. They would periodically go on car rides around town. Most of the time it was chatting and getting the housework done and attending to his daily needs. God gave both me and Lowell a very special person. Tom Howard
