“ In previous years, we often saw the lady we called "Marge" when she and we were out to breakfast. She always greeted us and sometimes stopped for a brief, pleasant chat. She always seemed optimistic even when Marge looked like she was in some pain. We greatly admired that she always kept going! We have lovely memories of her spirit and determination. “ Marge and my sister, Linda Fry, knew each other for a long time. When my sister passed, Marge called me and comforted me. I will never forget her kind words. She was a very sweet person, and I know she is in heaven with Jesus. --Lynn McDaniels
