“ Jeanie and Ron were the best neighbors ever. I have such fond memories (and some funny ones too) of them both, along with their dog Bishie. I'm sure I spelled that wrong. It's hard for me to think of one without the other. And now they're together again.

Jeanie was always sending over cookies or stopping over to visit and on occasion watching my young boys in a pinch. One week I was so sick with pneumonia and had to go stay in the hospital. My husband was traveling for work, so Jeanie to the rescue. She got me to the ER, then took the boys to her house. I remember she told me that she made them some homemade macaroni and cheese...from scratch. I'm sure it was delicious! What a peach, right? But typical kids, both boys turned up their noses because it wasn't Kraft, out of the blue box. Haha. So many great memories. She was so kind. And funny. I can still hear her laugh.

Sending love and condolences to the whole family and all the friends.

“ Jeanie was a great friend to my Mom after our Dad died. I remember going to the duplex on Scott St often. I'm so thankful they stayed friends for a lifetime and my Mom will miss her dearly. Her children, their families and her friends are in my prayers.

“ I have such fond memories of having your mom as my bus driver in the late 70's. She always had a smile on her face and asked about our day. I always sat in the seat right behind her so we could chat on the long ride home. Every so often she would surprise me with a special treat of a giant sized Hershey candy bar (but I couldn't tell the other kids...lol). I think of her often and will always remember our special friendship. My thoughts and prayers are with your family at this difficult time. Jill McNeilly- Ostrander Grand Ledge
