“ So sorry for your loss. I haven't seen all of you in so many years, but I think of all of you often, every time I drive by your old house. I enjoyed my time babysitting all of you, and your mom and dad were always so kind to me. I hope your happy memories carry you through the difficult days ahead. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ Cousin Mary reminded me of all the things we had in common. Our love of family history, growing and crafting gourds and antiques. Last July all of the cousins were able to meet at Sophia’s and it was a treat to see everyone. May you Rest In Peace sweet lady.

Vicki (Willis) Scribner - January 14, 2022 at 05:28 PM

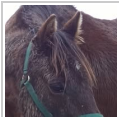

Thank you Vicki, I’m so glad that you all got together last July, she enjoyed it very much.

“ We were fortunate to know Mary in her later years. She graciously allowed us to store our 4 wheel toys in her fabulous pole barn. Mary was spunky and sweet at the same time. We last ran into her in Meijer (Grand Ledge) and she seemed so pleased we recognized her and stopped to chat a bit. Treasure your memories of this fine lady.

“ Mary, Jeanie, and I were stair-step cousins. We enjoyed ice skating by the river in G.L.as youngsters. My dad built a cottage at Missaukee Lake, and Mary's father bought one a few cottages away. We played at the beach and the water and had such good times together, As a young married woman I bundled my children Susan and Scott, and we planned a visit with Mary and kids, Mary called me and said "DON'T COME, I'm in Labor". (again!). What a busy family she had. We made many buying trips to buy at her highly successful Oneida Field Market. We visited her home last summer with our masks sitting on the porch bringing her favorite Culver's meal.. She was a people person and always delighted to plan or host an event. I talked to her shortly before her moving to assisted living, She was a dear loving cousin and I have many great memories. My condolences to her family, and dear sister Wanda. Because I'm immune compromised we won't be attending the funeral. She is in peace now, and our hearts ache for you all. Love,
Connie
