Maureen was the best childhood friend ever. I have so many memories of growing up on Leslie St.; walking to school together; playing Barbies on my front porch, and late night outdoor games like hide and go seek with the neighborhood kids. I was always her sidekick. As we got older, we grew apart. I wish that never happened but life does that somehow. Still we always remained friends. We had a childhood bond that will hold us together forever. She will be greatly missed.
