“ Kink and Eddie, JoAnne and Tony,I am so sorry to hear about your Mom's death. She was such a big part of my childhood at all those parties and summers at the lake. And your Dad, too, of course. He taught me to fish. I know this is a silly thing but I have a vivid memory of coming to your house (the big brick square sort of one on the way to Fitzgerald Park) with our whole family for dinner one night and your Mom's rule was that we couldn't have a second glass of milk until we'd eaten our dinner. One of the first times I realized that all homes were not the same. It meant so much to me to have your Mom come to my Dad's memorial party and for you to come to my Mom's. I'm sorry I cannot be there for you. I think of you often and tell my grandson lots of stories about our time at Lake George together.Love,Vicki##imported-begin##Vicki Murphy##imported-end##

“ Our family shares the loss of a beautiful lady. We met Minnie down at Twin Mills Resort where she and her husband, Ed, would stay while selling their antiques at the flea market in Shipshiwanna. Ken, myself and our children camped along side Minnie and Ed for many years at the campground along with several other couples who all became very good friends. Minnie was a gracious woman who loved her family very much and always talked about her grandchildren. We will always remember those good times. Rest in peace my dear friend.##imported-begin##Deb & Ken Everly##imported-end##
