“ Paul was a friend to Me. With deepest sympathy and sadness I send this to the family of Paul. The God of love who understands all our relationships is sometimes more concern with what we cannot see in the mind and heart of the one he takes home. I believe that God thoughtfully weighs all departures from life. He must know that broken hearts caused by the absence of their loving presence will not out weigh the pain and suffering endured though the broken body of the one that is dearly loved. God loves both, the one with the broken body and the ones that have broken hearts. It is only because of Gods genuine love and well-placed mercy he heals the broken hearts and gives a new body to the afflicted loved one. I send this with a hug.##imported-begin##John Tribfelner##imported-end##

“ I send you my deepest sympathies in this time of your loss. May the warmth and comfort of lovely memories someday take the place of the sadness you feel now. I pray that God grant you some comfort in this time of great pain.##imported-begin##Sarah (Armstrong) Andritsis##imported-end##
