“ It was such an honor to know Paul. His smile always brought me so much joy. He made me laugh just about every day with his funny comments and digs on my crazy hair colors and wild tattoos. He would poke fun at me just about every day because I think secretly he enjoyed my company but didn't wanna ruin the banter. We knew how to joke around with each other in a fun way that always ended with both of us laughing and smiling. He will be truly missed.

“ I will always remember your smile, your greetings upon arrival to work, the many questions you'd ask about how my kids were doing, and your knowledge of every vehicle staff drove. You've played a special part in many people's lives and I am honored to have known you.
