“ Our deepest condolences to the family of Penny. This must have been sudden as the last time we talked she was doing well. Getting her hands done and dental work. We were going to get together for drinks and such. We are sorry we missed the opportunity. She will be missed. She was a good friend.##imported-begin##Derek & Sharon Kalush##imported-end##

“ I am proud to say Penny was my first friend while working at Treasury. She taught me a lot, and we shared many laughs. I will miss hanging out with her on Sundays. I treasure the memories of her and I crocheting, knitting, swapping recipes, and planting flowers. My prayers go out to her family and other friends. ##imported-begin## Jill Stigall ##imported-end##
