“We are formed and molded by our thoughts. Those whose minds are shaped by selfless thoughts give joy when they speak or act.”
Buddha

A hero is someone who is selfless, generous in spirit, and helps people by deeply caring. Rob was a hero. I never heard him complain when he had a reason to complain. I witnessed him going above and beyond to help those around him, when he could have easily walked away. No matter how big or small of a problem, Rob fixed it with a deeply, thought out solution. I will always treasure his heroic efforts. And he always ROCKED that VISOR!

With much love and deep sorrow,

“ To the family of Coach Rob,
We want to say how much we appreciated the way your Dad coached our daughter Emily Maves during her years at Davenport University. He always treated her and her abilities with the utmost respect allowing her to be successful in contributing to the success of her team at Davenport each and every year game in and game out. He bolstered her career with his patience and knowledge of the game. His best accomplishment on Emily's behalf besides giving her the freedom to be herself, pulling the toughness out if when she needed it most was getting her to believe in that darn change up that she had a hard time with her whole career previous to Rob coming along.
May God bless you all and forever have good memories of your Dad

Sincerely,
Dan and Katie Maves
