“ Uncle Bob always called me Jolisa, I could never figure that out, but if that's what he wanted to call me, that was fine with me. I had the best time in Hawaii with him and aunt Mary. He even went around the island and found her a hut-dog (hot-dog) as she called them because that is what she wanted. She said "Oh daddy" can you find me a hut-dog. It was so cute and funny. And when he wanted to go to Pearl Harbor that was the best time of the whole trip. It was so touching and brought tears to his eyes. He knew a lot of the guys that had died on his ship, he had us all crying. I will always remember how musical he was also, I think he could play any thing by ear. But most of all I will remember what a special uncle he was. We love you uncle Bob!

We will always remember the good times you brought us.

Love Jodi (Jolisa)
