“ You were so full of laughter and such a fun guy to hang around. I remember when i first met u back in Feb. 2005, you asked Timmy which girlfriend i was lol...And we went to the fishing tournament, you were such a goof ragging on all the fishermen about catching fish. Margeret always drove us all over for something to do b/c you said you didnt feel like sitting at home...Miss you! You will never be forgotten...

“ I'll never forget all the times I spent the night with Amy at her Dad's when we were teenagers... Mr. Johnson was always a very cool Dad... he never complained when Amy and I would stay up half the night talking and laughing... I know he is looking down on Amy and the rest of the family now and always... you guys have your very own guardian angel :) RIP
