“ Roger Allen and I did a lot of things together as cousins. He would stay at our house during the summer and help my dad with the farming. When the Cherries were ready to be picked at Grandma Roth's house Rog and I would climb up the tree with peanut butter buckets and pick, when the buckets were full we would hand them down to the adults that were picking and they would empty the buckets and hand them back. Rog tried to teach me to shoot a bow and arrow, we were young so the arrow had a blunt end. Which was good cause my aim was bad and I hit him. Man we were in trouble for that. I will miss him. Stead Fast and Loyal, 4th Avn. Army. Rest in Peace. Marie Roth Halstead
