“ So sorry to hear of Rose’s passing. She met our parents in Hawaii many years ago, and she and Ted visited them afterwards in Murray Harbour PEI where we met them. They enjoyed lobster fishing and lots of laughs in PEI! She painted us this lovely picture of our harbour and Dad’s boat.

Sincere condolences, Terry and Sandi White

“ What a kind and giving lady. She and Ted more than once allowed us to join them for dancing, dining, music festivals. She was an artist; beautiful watercolors and chinks that represented her loves: Family, Life, Loves.

“ So blessed to of had such a loving grandma. Always so loving and caring towards her grandkids and great-grand kids. She always made sure she was there for the grandkids activities and loved it even more when we gathered together as a family and especially this time of year to make Christmas cookies at her house, so many great memories. We love you and will miss you so much grandma.

Forever in our hearts,
Jason, Linda, Daniela, JJ, Thalia and Salvador
