“ The Baribeau Family,

I never met Steve, but he always sent a Christmas card. The house you live in was my wife Aunt's. The jewelry store in Grand Rapids I stopped at once because my grandfather said we were related. I am truly sorry for your loss and wish you all the best.

We have moved to Kewadin outside of Elk Rapids. So you have become the only Baribeau's in town. A little family history. Great grandfather ran a bar that fed the logging camp when it came to GL. My grandfather and father were both dentists in town. My Grandfather was born in Thompsonville where the Baribeau's ran a bar that was there to feed logging camp. That was the family business my Grand father always said. Prohibition was the end of that so my grandfather went into the dental business as did two of his brothers(one in GR). Sorry we never met.

Though so many years have passed since we had contact we always remember and often think of the great times we had with all of the Baribeau's on Sawkaw/Wyandotte. “ Sincerest condolences to Steve's family and friends. I knew Steve because I owned the music store down the street from Baribeau & Sons. He was an icon of the Fulton St. business district and supportive of all of us around him. I enjoyed our many conversations about music, business and life in general when he came into my store at least twice a week. This is, of course, the deepest losses to his family and loved ones, but I also want to acknowledge void this will leave in the Fulton St. community. He was a swell guy.

“ Our kids grow up together here in Grand Ledge, but I did not know Steve well. I did know that his family loved him dearly. The love they had for him was clear each time their faces would light up when they talked about him and the way they would wait for him to come home each night from work and eat as a family.... no matter how late. ❤️

“ I first met Steve through my son Andy, whose girlfriend is Sarah. I believe our first meeting was at Sarah’s graduation party. My first impression of Steve was good; he was heartwarming and humorous, and I found out that we liked some of the same things – old clocks and antiques. I told him that some of my clocks were not working and he immediately offered to fixed them. I live in Detroit, but sometimes business takes me to Grand Rapids. So we both agreed that the next time I am in Grand Rapids that I would drop off clocks and we would do lunch or have coffee and wonderful pastries at Van’s next door to the store. I believe we did this 3 or 4 times. We talked of politics, our sons, his daughters, life, our jobs, and cigars. I really enjoyed his stories and humor during these times, and every time I went to Grand Rapids I would usually visit Steve. I later found out what a very talented clockmaker Steve was. I always envied his patience to details. The various clocks he repaired for me are still working today, and they all keep good time despite their age of 60 years or more! Steve really cared about people and his work – for that I will always remember his impact on me and my son Andy.

“ So many memories but one of my favorites: Steve was getting ready to leave for Purdue and I wanted to throw him a surprise goodbye party with all of his friends. Not knowing how to go about Mama D suggested I tell everyone to just show up. After there were about 10-15 people who "just stopped by", Steve finally looked at everybody and said "hey, what's going on?". The look on his face was priceless.

A classic highschool memory; so Bruce, Doug, and I were TP'ing the house on Meyers Lake one lovely summer night when we knew he was not at home (Bruce's mom got TP by the case) and we were doing an enthusiastic job of it but apparently were laughing loud enough for his parents to hear... His dad came out and offered some artistic suggestions and even a few spots we missed, mom made us hot chocolate. Such great sports, just love them. We went home and in the morning I woke up and went to let my dog out and there was a trash bag in my back door full of toilet paper! I don't recall the exact wording but it was something about sweet revenge... I don't know how many hours it took him to clean up all that TP but he did it then came to MY house and wrapped my father's rose bushes (my dad had lots of those bushes) tightly with the reclaimed TP... each branch and stem were carefully and completely and tightly wrapped. Just like his dad allowed Steve do the cleaning, so did mine, myself fingers bled most of that day. I'm still impressed! He was always a great sport and a craftsman...
Love to All,
Brad Moll.
