“ So sad to hear about Steve’s passing. I knew Steve thru working with him at St Lawrence Adult Psychiatric Unit. Steve was great co worker, reliable, friendly, easy going, great with patients and great sense of humor. Monday and Wednesdays at 3 pm I would go up to unit and see Steve, we’d laugh and talk about sports. Steve had great smile and was hilarious. Sad to hear he’s no longer with us. My condolences to wife, family and friends, he will be missed. Goodbye my friend thanks for all the great memories and laughs !!

“ Steve was a great Psych Tech to work with. As a RN, you knew Steve would always 'have your back.' He was kind to the patients and treated everyone with respect. Every Fall I would bake and bring in for the staff, a chocolate zucchini cake - Steve would pick out all the raisins and asked me not to add raisins anymore:-) He had a great sense of humor which so often would help relieve stress. He talked about his children with such pride. He will certainly be missed. Love and Peace to you Steve. RIP

“ My Buddy, my work husband and good friend, you were so loved and will be truly missed. When you walked in a room everyone knew it was on. I think of the laughter we shared during and after work, the times we spent at the Irish Pub. You, me Lora and LuAnn. Rest up my forever friend.

“ I remember when Steven was born. His father, Ben jr, my best friend, was so proud of Steven. Ben was very glad that Steven's Aunt Gloria was very proud to take the responsibility of helping Ben raise Steven. Ben used to talk to me about how Steven was doing. I really feel that Ben felt bad because He didn't feel capable of taking care of Steven like He may of wanted to.

Steven's passing hit me like being hit with a pile of bricks, just like His dad's did.
