“ Thane II reached out to me after my diagnosis in hopes of helping me navigate the holistic path that I chose. He shared his wealth of knowledge with me & believed in my ability to heal naturally, and brought me great comfort. I wish that more people could have known what an incredibly caring & supportive & gentle man he was. He will always hold a special place in my heart & I will miss him dearly.

Everything you said is how I will remember him too. He was such an interested listener and eager to help based on his experience and with information he took the time to find. My heart will miss him always. The world lost an exceptional man.
