

Victor Aaron Lemm

July 11, 1955 - December 6, 2020

Victor Aaron Lemm of Grand Ledge passed away after a brief courageous battle with cancer. Victor was born July 11, 1955 in Lansing, Michigan to Walter and Verna J. (Gardner) Lemm. He graduated from Waverly High School and worked much of his career in retail sales. He managed the D & C store downtown Grand Ledge and also worked and traveled for Hayes Specialties Co, a wholesale retailer. Victor along with his family also operated their own store in Clare for several years called Hometown Variety. He was a big fan of MSU athletics and collected MSU and Budweiser memorabilia. He is survived by his loving wife of over 43 years, Patty (Wolodko); children, Brian and Kim (Brian) Urch; granddaughters, McKinley and Raven Lemm; mother, Verna along with several nieces and cousins. Victor was preceded in death by his dad, Walter; brothers, Jeff and Raymond and daughter-in-law, Shelly Lemm.

A private family service will be held. Memorial contributions may be given to the Grand Ledge Emergency Services Authority, 500 N. Clinton Street, Grand Ledge, Michigan 48837 (GLESA). Arrangements by the Holihan-Atkin-Barclay Funeral Home, Grand Ledge.

“ Ill always laugh when Vic helped Brian and I sell fireworks 7 years ago. We had a huge expensive fountain that was tough to sell. Vic took great pride in selling them. So much so we renamed the fountain the Big Vic. We will miss him
