“ I will always cherish the memories of Bill, he loved to fish and he was always available. We would go mostly ice fishing, and some the the times it was kind of risky. Always wanting to be one the first out at first ice, we sometimes took chances but he was always there if I should happen to fall through. Once the ice was so thin that we had to stand at least 10-12 feet apart. Always laughing and enjoying the moment
He will be missed.
